

Observer

This component feeds various SGT components (e.g. Starfields) with information about when a camera is rendering, its rotation, velocity, etc.

All cameras in your scene rendering SGT items should have this component attached.

Roll Angle

When the camera performs a roll this value will change. This value is used to rotate billboards to improve their appearance.